

Create a scavenger hunt

Make popsicles

Watch a nature documentary

Create your own spy code - try to crack each other's code

Learn / Speak pig Latin

Listen to an audiobook while doing sidewalk chalk

Play Wallball anywhere you can find--your backyard wall or a nearby school wall

Watch YouTube Art Lessons for kids

Create your own graphic novel

Go for an Eye Spy Animals Walk

Create an indoor treasure hunt

Decorate bookmarks

Card/board game

Start some seedlings for a garden (e.g. bean pod)--experiment with different soils

Play freeze tag

Create jewelry with beads or macaroni

Use those various craft/science kits from birthdays

Color and/or hide Easter Eggs . . . at any time of the year

Build a train track

Play backyard games (baseball/cornhole/bocce ball/tetherball)

Have a dress-up fashion show with categories (silly, sporty, superhero)

Finger painting

Play Simon Says

Build a Hotwheels track

Break out the paint

Make and play with play-doh

Paint a pet rock

Play H-O-R-S-E with whatever you can find (a laundry basket and some stuffed animals)

Try a new cookie recipe

Play indoor hide and seek

Play capture the flag

Write your own autobiography

Play with static electricity (use a ballon)

Learn some hand-slap games (Miss Mary Mack, Down By the Banks, etc.)

Play hot potato

Play hangman or tic-tac-toe

Make a diet coke and mentos explosion

Climb a tree

Go camping in the living room - make some indoor smores

Build a fort

Create an obstacle course

Have thumb wars

Make a time capsule

Play charades

Decorate a box

Have a relay race

Learn Morse Code

Create colorful salt paintings with watercolors and salt

Have a dance party

Pop some popcorn and watch a classic movie

Bake a mug cake