POSSIBLE PODCAST INTERVIEW TOPICS

The College Class That Made Us Millionaires

My husband and I took a personal finance class in college that taught the importance of early investing. We avoided lifestyle inflation and invested as much as possible in simple tax-advantaged accounts. Our net worth reached over $1 Million in our early 30s.

Anyone Can Retire Early

How to calculate your Financial Independence Number. Plus, how to make investing simple and effective!

The Easiest Way to Build Long Term Wealth

By setting up auto-transfers, you can put your financial goals first - without having to stress about it.
